

Action Transport Theatre Presents

STATIK

For KS1 & KS2

Key Themes – Literacy skills, physical storytelling and individuality.

Dear Colleague,

This autumn join our three performers in STATIK, as they clown, tumble and play their way through an extraordinary story about independence and friendship. With a soundtrack inspired by the wisdom of children, STATIK reveals what happens when one person can't, or won't fit in.

'Filled to the brim with visual comedy'

John Roberts, Public Reviews

'Playfulness, wisdom.... a show of real quality'

John Hegley, Poet and Comedian

'Our expectations were exceeded...the social experience was so valuable...the whole experience was fantastic!'

Audlem St James Primary School, Crewe,

£450 for show in school for 100 pupils

OR

£5 per pupil for show at Whitby Hall Studio Theatre

Please see booking form for full details.

Learning Resource and Relevance to National Curriculum

We will provide a comprehensive and easy to use learning resource to support the show which includes the following curriculum links:

- Develop literacy skills by harnessing motivation and inspiration through writing activities, group work and reading aloud.
- PSHCE & Citizenship – importance of individuality, acceptance and tolerance, social cohesion and self expression.
- Physical Education – using bodies, simple choreography, physical group work.

Please complete and return the enclosed booking form or contact me for more information.

Yours sincerely,

Jessica Egan
